Father-Daughter Dance returns for sixth year

The annual Father-Daughter Dance returns this month for its sixth year, with dinner and a dance, all for just $150, which is a great way to get involved in the community.

Students at Patwin Elementary School have been participating in this event for the past five years, and this year, the dance will be held in memory of Judi Meinert, who was a long-time resident of Davis and a strong advocate for education. The dance is open to any Davis student, regardless of gender.

The theme of the dance this year is "I Live a Normal Life," and it is inspired by the story of a guide dog named Zoe. The dance will feature music, food, and a raffle, and all proceeds will go to support the annual Father-Daughter Dance.

Students from Davis High School and Kyoto, a nearby community, will perform in the event. The dance will be held on Friday, February 19, at 7 p.m., at Crocker Art Center, and admission is $150 per couple.
