1. Call to Order & Roll Call (6:15)

Meeting called to order by 6:16 by Arnold

2. Public Comment

No public comment

3. Discussion Item - Aquatics Center exploration follow-up and briefing

Bowes: District has reviewed the Aquatics Center Study and thanked the City for the additional analysis and collaboration and the time and resources dedicated to this discussion. After carefully considering the potential for partnership on the matter, the District has determined that the District will move forward on its own with the Aquatics Center on DJUSD property. Time is now of the essence with the sale of the $150 million Bond and projects underway at DSHS. Potential future partnership opportunities may happen with the Anderson Road project.

Arnold: Expressed disappointment with not partnering with the District on the a

DiNunzio: The decided option was the best route for the District. Appreciation expressed for the City efforts with hope for more opportunities for partnership such as the Anderson Corridor project.

Poppenga: Echoed DiNunzio sentiments and the time spent reviewing all options.

Lee: Thanked staff for their work. Plenty of other opportunities for partnership.

4. Adjourn to next meeting

Meeting adjourned by Will Arnold at 6:27 p.m.
