6. Discussion Items

A. American Rescue Plan (ARP) Updates

Will - Provided an update on the items and programs that the Board of Supervisors are looking at. Gave an update on funding to Paul's Place.

Stachowicz – Gave an overview of where the council subcommittee was with regards to the ARP requests. Shared what programs and amounts the Council has already approved.

Provenza – Indicated that the Adult Day Health Center may make a request.

B. Davis Cold Weather Shelter

Machado – Gave an overview of the set-up at the Migrant Center and the chain of events that lead to the closure of the shelter on December 17. The city still plans to use this location next year. Shared what accommodations are currently being made for vulnerable individuals needing shelter during the winter months which includes hotel rooms and beds at facilities such as 4th and Hope in Woodland.

Evans – Shared information on the PRK 2.0 program which is being run through CommuniCare for placement of COVID individuals so they can receive services. Also provided a summary of other active programs.

C. COVID Response

Stachowicz – Provided an update on the steps that the City is taking with the workforce. Explained that the City is working with UCD to support testing through June.

Rinde – Shared what the County is doing with their workforce to prevent workplace transmission. Discussed the recent CDC quarantine rules and what the health department has been doing to communicate those rules to the public. Explained that law enforcement and first responders are not treated as healthcare workers, so there aren't any special arrangements for them to do rapid testing.

Stachowicz: Fire, Police and dispatch have had access to testing and can easily get a rapid test if/when needed.

D. Long Range Planning Calendar

Rinde – Shared a list that he and Mike Webb put together of topics that are frequently discussed amongst this 2x2. Of those topics, some were selected to be brought back in the coming months.

Saylor – Requested that the list be reviewed and tentative timelines be set for each of the items.

Partida joined meeting at 12:50
