Proposed Scope and Workplan for D Street Neighborhood

Mary Lynn Tobin, Davis Community Church (DCC), requested the subcommittee consider community-wide homeless issues and responsibilities, and include discussion with homeless stakeholders.

City Council Subcommittee (Asmundson/Greenwald)

John Oakley, DCC legal counsel, stated the proposed scope and workplan defined in terms of stakeholders is problematic and ignores the community as a whole. He suggested expanding the scope and urged against rushing the timeline.

Alan Brownstein, Congregation Bet Haverim, spoke regarding religious liberty and autonomy, and stated the provision of homeless services is part of the church's religious ministry.

Chris Fry, Grace in Action, requested the subcommittee broaden the scope beyond the narrow focus of D Street neighborhood, and consider this a first step in addressing homelessness in Davis.

Brad Schaefer, representative from D Street neighborhood residents, stated he supports a comprehensive discussion of homeless issues; however, the subcommittee should focus on the proposed zoning change for specific properties.

R. Asmundson stated the subcommittee's initial meeting with staff is scheduled this week and will focus on identifying appropriate stakeholders.

Individual Councilmembers provided suggestions regarding modifications to the scope and workplan. Comments included: add homeless, DDBA, Social Services Commission and Planning Commission stakeholders, request to include analysis of statistical data from homeless service providers, subcommittee should focus on homeless services on D Street and should consider how to structure an expanded group conversation to address community-wide issues, request for short-term action related to zoning issue,

By consensus, City Council directed subcommittee to return to City Council with revised scope and workplan.

S. Greenwald moved that all subcommittees be treated equally, with scopes and workplans for active subcommittees to return to City Council for public discussion and Council direction on future activities. No second.

2990 Fifth Street/
Mace Ranch Land
Trust Project – CHOC Request for Extension of Construction Deadline
(*City Council &
Redevelopment
Agency item*)

Housing and Human Services Superintendent Danielle Foster summarized the background of the land dedication site at 2990 Fifth Street, initially awarded to Community Housing Opportunities Corporation (CHOC) in November 2004 with an April 1, 2006 construction start deadline, later extended three times in order to accommodate modifications to project components and pursuit of grant funding. The latest deadline was November 1, 2008. The approved project plans consist of a residential/office subdivision to be developed under the community land trust ownership model.

Scott Shepherd, CHOC, explained that the request for a one year extension will allow the developers to ride out the current extreme market conditions. Further, conventional construction financing is unavailable at this time, and the success of the project depends upon availability of credit for first time homebuyers.

D. Saylor moved, seconded by L. Heystek, that Community Housing Opportunities Corporation (CHOC) be granted a one-year extension with a new construction start deadline of November 1, 2009 for the land dedication site at 2990 Fifth Street, and direct staff to finalize project benchmarks and return to City Council quarterly with project updates.

L. Heystek proposed friendly amendment to recommend CHOC renegotiate construction costs. Accepted by mover.

D. Saylor proposed further amendment to direct staff to work with CHOC to identify cost drivers within the project and identify ways to reduce costs. Accepted by second. Motion passed by the following vote:
