5. Commissioner and Staff Communications:

Staffmember Foster discussed a number of updates with the Commission:

- The City Council took action on amendments to the Affordable Housing Ordinance and removed the Accessory Dwelling Unit affordable housing credit option with an effective date of June 1, 2015.
- After forming a City Council subcommittee as part of the review process for the two land dedication sites brought through the Request for Proposals (RFP) process in October of last year, Council awarded the site to the BerryBridge Partners proposal for the development of eight affordable ownership units.
- A fiscal analysis of the proposals on the Fifth Street land dedication site is underway. Staffmember Foster mentioned the Fifth Street project would not return to the Commission for recommendations due to the time demands of the upcoming CDBG/HOME grant process and the need for a streamlined approach to the process after a few unforeseen delays.
- Staff met with SACOG representatives to discuss how to be competitive with new transit-oriented affordable housing development funds.
- The annual Supportive Housing Program (SHP) contract with HUD has been renewed for 2015.
- The Bridge to Housing project is progressing, 41 participants are in the Housing Choice Voucher program seeking permanent supportive housing.
- Two of the affordable ownership units built in Willowbank Park are in escrow with qualified buyers, and two units have potential buyers finishing the certification process.
- The annual Point in Time (PIT) homeless census count (both sheltered and unsheltered individuals) takes place this week in Davis. This year, funding was received to focus on counting homeless youth and veterans.
- Staff attended a Housing Fair on the UC Davis campus geared towards the needs of undocumented students. Staffmember Foster thanked Ann Privateer and members of the Human Relations Commission for volunteering their time to be present at the fair.
- Yolo Conflict Resolution Center, which receives in-kind support from the City, recently completed a mediation training program hosted by Da Vinci High School. Several community members, along with school district staff, participated in the training.

Councilmember Davis also spoke to the commission on two topics:

- City and County staff met with Don Saylor’s office to discuss relationship building and homelessness issues, to determine city and county priorities.
- The Bridge to Housing process has been a valuable observational tool for city staff to see what it would look like to follow the Housing First model in Davis. Councilmember Davis also mentioned that the typical Housing First model does not include the transitional phase of hotel residence, which was used in the West Sacramento Bridge to Housing program.

   A. Police Training Regarding Social Services.
   Staffmember Foster introduced Paul Doroshov from the Police Department to speak about police training for police interactions with individuals experiencing mental illness. This topic, a follow-up from a commission request for more information, was presented as informational only.
