DUTIES OF THE SCHOOL RESOURCE OFFICER (SRO)

The SRO will primarily be assigned to work at the High Schools and Junior Highs with the primary purpose of providing education and support to students and working cooperatively with school staff to provide a safe campus. Broad goals of the program include:

- Creating goodwill and increasing understanding between students and law enforcement through personal interactions in a non-enforcement capacity.
- Making class presentations on law-enforcement related subjects or community issues.
- Providing guidance, assistance and support to students and their parents.
- Being responsive to youth needs and/or helping with their access to and interaction with government services, which they may be unfamiliar or uncomfortable with.
- Providing additional security at school and youth related events.
- Enforce the law when appropriate.
- Reducing truancy by working cooperatively with the students and school to determine student needs or identifying resources that may be available to them.
- Coordinating law enforcement efforts with the schools and school staff.

The SRO may be required to work varying shifts, days, and times, including weekends, holidays, and special events.

The SRO serves at the pleasure of the Police Chief.

DURATION OF ASSIGNMENT

SRO assignments are for 2 years with the option of two one-year extensions upon mutual agreement between the officer and department. The length of assignment will generally not exceed 4 years.
