Historic Preservation National Historic Preservation Act of 1966, particularly sections 106 and 110; 36 CFR Part 800	MM CUL-1: Cultural Awareness Training Program. If determined warranted during ongoing tribal consultation, a Cultural Awareness Training Program shall be provided to all construction managers and construction personnel prior to commencing ground disturbance work at the project site. The training shall be prepared and conducted by the designated local Tribe. The training shall be a length of time adequate to explain applicable statues, regulations, enforcement provisions; the prehistoric and historic environmental setting and context, of the local tribal groups; show sample artifacts; and what prehistoric and historic archaeological deposits look like at the surface and when exposed during construction. The training may be discontinued for new workers to the site when ground disturbance is completed. Construction personnel shall not be permitted to operate equipment within the construction area unless they have attended the training. A list of the names of all personnel who attended the training and copies of the signed acknowledgement forms shall be submitted to the City of Davis for their review and approval.	The designated local Tribe will conduct a Cultural Awareness training prior to any construction onsite.	City of Davis	During construction	City of Davis

	MM CUL-2: Cultural Resources Construction Monitoring. If determined warranted during ongoing tribal consultation, a qualified Tribal Cultural Monitor shall be continuously present onsite during ground disturbing activities, and on-call during trenching activities, to observe disturbance areas. The qualified Monitor or contractor shall halt work in the immediate vicinity if artifacts, exotic rock, shell, or bone are uncovered during the construction. In the event such cultural resources are unearthed during ground disturbing activities, and the qualified Monitor is not in that location, the project operator shall cease all ground-disturbing activities within one hundred feet of the find and immediately contact the qualified Monitor. Work shall not resume until the potential resource can be evaluated by the qualified Monitor. The qualified Monitor shall be empowered to halt or redirect ground-disturbing activities away from the vicinity of the find until the qualified Monitor has evaluated the find, determined whether the find is culturally sensitive, and designed an appropriate short term and long-term treatment plan. The Monitor shall determine the significance of the finding. If determined to be significant the Monitor shall prepare a treatment plan in consultation with local experts, Native American Representatives, and the City of Davis.	During ground disturbing activities; a qualified Tribal Cultural Monitor will be onsite.	City of Davis	During construction	City of Davis
